Salt Lake City Council and Youth City Government To host a ceremony commemorating the honorary street naming of "Rosa Parks Boulevard"

The Salt Lake City Council, in conjunction with the Youth City Government of Salt Lake City, will host a ceremony commemorating the honorary street naming of 200 East between South Temple and 600 South as "Rosa Parks Boulevard." The reception will be held on Wednesday, February 8th, 2006, at 4 pm, in the Urban Room of the Main Library in downtown Salt Lake City.

The brief ceremony will include remarks from members of the Youth City Government, Council Members Carlton Christensen and Nancy Saxton, Mayor Rocky Anderson, and NAACP Salt Lake City President Jeanetta Williams.

At the Salt Lake City Council's formal meeting on February 7th, 2006 they will be considering a resolution to adopt the honorary street name.

For more information about the February 8th reception please contact Jennifer Bruno in the Salt Lake City Council Office at 535-6295.
